

LAURIER
WILFRID LAURIER UNIVERSITY

Everywhere you look, people are inspired to learn, lead and leave their mark – to give their all and to give back. From meaningful staff-student relationships, to groundbreaking research projects, to the peer-to-peer support Laurier is famous for, you'll know and feel you belong here.

inspired.
together.

A photograph of three students sitting on a large pile of fallen autumn leaves. The student on the left is a man with glasses wearing a yellow sweatshirt with 'LAURIER' printed on it. The student in the middle is a woman with glasses wearing a grey sweater. The student on the right is a woman with long blonde hair wearing a tan sweater. They are all looking towards the right. The background is filled with trees with vibrant yellow and orange autumn leaves, creating a warm, golden atmosphere.

Laurier's Waterloo and Brantford campuses are on the traditional territory of the Neutral, Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee Peoples.

Laurier's Milton Campus is located on the traditional territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit, and part of the Nanfan Treaty of 1701.

Acknowledging them reminds us of our important connection to this land where we live, learn and work. We recognize, honour and respect these nations as the traditional stewards of the lands and water on which Laurier is now present.

A student experience that inspires.

How do you know you belong here?

- ▣ You want the education and experience you need to succeed in all aspects of life – that includes a supportive university community who will be by your side from your first day to graduation and beyond.
- ▣ You work hard in the classroom and take advantage of hands-on learning opportunities to really build your skills – like co-op, volunteering, travel and field trips.
- ▣ You are curious and care about the different stories and backgrounds that make us unique, and you see communities as the thread that ties us all together.
- ▣ You know the value of university is greater than a degree and you want to be acknowledged in the classroom for your individual knowledge and needs. You sense that university is the place to explore your academic, personal and professional potential.

Laurier is a place you'll make your own the second your feet hit the Golden Hawk grounds. No matter where you choose to study – Brantford, Milton or Waterloo – you'll experience the welcoming, student-focused community that we're known for. With 100+ programs to choose from across our three campuses, you can pick the location and program that's right for you.

A TRULY CONVENIENT CAMPUS

We’ve thought of everything to simplify your life as a university student at Laurier Milton. Enjoy small class sizes with first-name connections to profs, easy access to public transportation and shared lunch breaks so you can catch up with other Golden Hawks. Milton class schedules also steer clear of early mornings and late nights and there’s a mix of in-person and online courses —making it easier for you to manage the logistics of studying close to home.

WHERE AMBITION MEETS OPPORTUNITY

The town of Milton is home to the youngest population in Ontario, making it the perfect neighbourhood for a growing campus. That’s why we brought some of our most popular programs – psychology and computer science – to the town. Pairing these established programs with Laurier’s connection to thousands of co-op employers across Ontario, you can look forward to an experience rich in on-the-job learning and networking opportunities.

SUPPORTS AND SPACES DESIGNED FOR SUCCESS

We’re here to guide your success every step of the way. We’ll connect you to a range of on-campus and virtual resources to help you thrive personally and academically starting on day one. Cozy study nooks, cold and hot vending options and carefully designed collaboration areas mean you can immerse yourself in the Laurier community while still enjoying the benefits of a small campus.

Welcome to our
Waterloo

AN INNOVATIVE NEIGHBOURHOOD

In Waterloo, innovation is all around you. Companies like Google, Vidyar, Shopify and OpenText employ thousands and, alongside hundreds of small businesses, keep downtown Kitchener and uptown Waterloo hopping with fresh ideas and collaborations. Living and learning on the Waterloo campus means easy access to the connections you need to succeed.

A DIVERSE COMMUNITY

With over 100 nations represented across our campus, and over 250 across the region, you can look forward to a university experience rich in diversity. Immerse yourself in this experience through campus clubs, cultural events and our dedicated campus changemaker community. Plus, get excited for the host of shops and restaurants run by entrepreneurs from around the world, right outside your door

COUNTLESS OPPORTUNITIES

This campus and city are planned around student life, with more options for housing, recreational sports, food and entertainment every year. Designed to be transit friendly, the public transit and new light rail transit system makes running errands between classes easier than ever.

Laurier is for the whole family.
From generation to generation, we love celebrating our successes together.

RESOURCES FOR PARENTS AND SUPPORTERS AT
WLU.CA/FAMILIES

"At Laurier, you're not just another student – you truly matter. From the moment I interacted with the university, I felt a genuine sense of welcome and support."
– Dwisha, 3rd Year Student

"Accessible Learning is something that I don't think I would have been able to get through my Laurier journey without. The consultants made a positive impact on me from the minute that I accepted my offer."
– Registered Accessible Learning Student

"One thing I really like about Laurier is that mental health is really important here. There are a lot of programs, like Thrive Week, where they show how they actually care about students."
– Yusra, 4th Year Student

"My residence experience was entirely shaped by the supports I received from my dons and house council advisor. Had it not been for their support and faith in my abilities, I do not think I would be the involved Golden Hawk that I am today."
– Timna, 2nd Year Student

"With Laurier Athletics Facilities being right on campus alongside study spaces and classrooms, it gave me an opportunity to fit physical exercise into my day no matter how busy I was. It is also home to our intramural, extramural teams and many different sports clubs so there is something for everyone."
– Koyal, 5th Year Student

"Laurier 101 helped me throughout my transition to university by providing me with multiple resources that I might need before getting settled on campus. The updates leading up to move in day really helped ease my nerves by preparing me for the big day!"

– Angelina, 1st Year Student

» wlu.ca/supports

"As a graduating Laurier student, I know firsthand that from academic success to financial support to physical and mental wellness, Laurier offers the support you need to ensure you not only survive undergrad but thrive!"

Our students lead lives of influence and impact. Their university education is about building knowledge and experience that serves society, so they can make a lasting difference in their communities and the world around us. Laurier is inspiring the world's future leaders, researchers, business owners, artists and changemakers.

How will you make a difference?

“Laurier not only accepts but invites change, and encourages its students to play an active role in it.”

– JOY K (HEALTH SCIENCES GRADUATE, LAURIER)

Campus Changemaker Charting her Path to Transform Healthcare.

Joy, a recent Laurier Health Sciences graduate and recipient of the Laurier Scholars Award, grew up calling three countries “home” (Egypt, Kuwait and Canada). This life experience gave her unique insight into healthcare disparities around the world, and sparked a desire to foster a culturally inclusive healthcare community and give back in ways that really matter.

In 2023, backed by the support of professors, staff and students within Laurier’s Faculty of Science, Joy rallied support for the first ever Student Culture Day, an event designed to educate the Laurier community about its own cultural diversity. The second annual Student Culture Day was attended by 300 students representing over 35 different countries!

Within the classroom, Joy has broadened her understanding of healthcare significantly and conducted research alongside award-winning professors in both the Child Memory Lab and the Faculty’s Inclusion, Diversity, Equity and Accessibility committee.

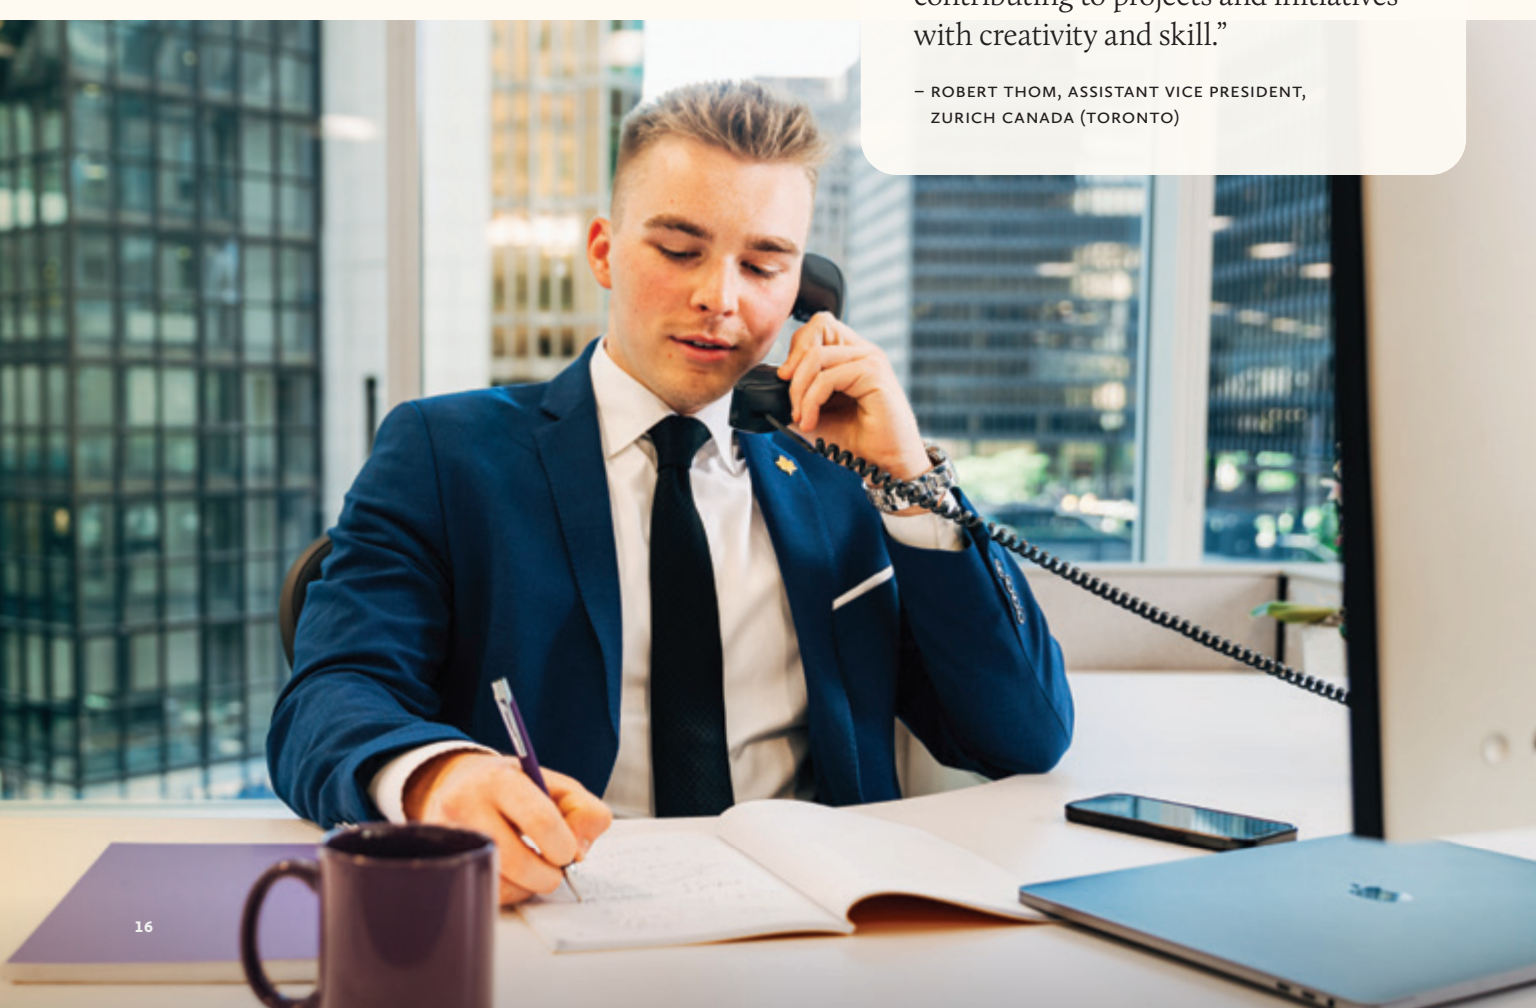

With the encouragement of the Laurier community behind her, Joy continues to stretch beyond her comfort zone, be bold in pursuing her purpose and seek out opportunities to make a difference – both now and in her future career. At the end of her third year of study at Laurier, Joy was accepted into medical school – one step closer to her dream. Her advice to future Golden Hawks? “Laurier has opportunities all around – you only need to be brave enough to seek them out.”

Students from Laurier’s co-op program have consistently demonstrated enthusiasm, a strong work ethic, and a desire to learn and grow. They have quickly become valuable team members, contributing to projects and initiatives with creativity and skill.”

– ROBERT THOM, ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT,
ZURICH CANADA (TORONTO)

You are a curious and creative. You think about the future and what you need to do to succeed. That's why every aspect of your student experience at Laurier helps you grow into a meaningful career. Graduate with hands-on, real-world experience that sets you apart.

▣ Be a changemaker.

Be part of a community that's finding solutions to the world's social and environmental problems. As an Ashoka U Changemaker Campus, Laurier is a global leader in social innovation. Academic options and dedicated spaces will inspire you to use entrepreneurship to transform lives and contribute to a more sustainable world.

Hands-on education comes in so many forms, making it one of the greatest ways to customize your degree and leave your own meaningful mark on the world around you. Experiential learning also equips you with a career-ready resumé sure to impress – even before you graduate.

Learn by doing.

▣ Paid work experience.

Transform your classroom knowledge into early career success through paid co-op or on-campus jobs at Laurier. Unleash your skills, embrace on-the-job challenges and discover your full potential all while funding your future.

▣ Community and workplace partnerships.

Community Service-Learning opportunities, practicum courses and industry-engaged projects give you a chance to put what you've learned into practice and test the waters before committing to a particular career.

▣ Performances and competitions.

Showcase your creative and career-oriented skills in real-world contexts, whether you're performing a moving concerto or navigating a complicated business case.

▣ International opportunities.

Living and learning in another country can be just the way to take your understanding to a new level. Bring education to life by connecting concepts to the history, values, lifestyle, political and economic landscape of another culture.

▣ Volunteering and giving back.

Choose what matters to you at Laurier by actively contributing to meaningful initiatives in the community, from supporting new immigrants, preserving local habitats or even stocking an on-campus food bank.

YOUR LAURIER EXPERIENCE RECORD lets you track your hands-on learning so you can set yourself apart when you enter the job market (or apply to grad school). It's the first record of its kind in Canada!
